

The Sinclair Broadcasting group's broadcast of a one-sided attack against Kerry should be charged as a direct contribution to Bush's campaign, a one-hour long commercial. Broadcasters should be prevented from broadcasting one-sided material as "news" or a "documentary."